Exchange student host family abroad housework halls of residence

I didn't go to university in my home country. I decided to study 1 _____.
But studying abroad is pretty expensive, so I looked for the cheapest accommodation I could find. At first, I stayed with a 2 _____ because it was cheap, and it was a way to get to know the people and the culture. After six months, when I had more money, I moved to a 3 _____ so I could be right on campus and get to class much faster. I loved this environment because there were people from all over the world. The downside is that I had to do all my own 4 _____.
There was no one to clean up after me. Life's hard and expensive as an 5 _____ but I don't regret studying abroad.
