

Listening exercise: Spot the Difference: Classrooms

Instructions: Listen carefully to the two descriptions of classrooms. Then, drag the right sentences which describe Classroom A and Classroom B.

Computer Usage

- A student in the corner is working on a computer.
- One student is typing on a computer.

Student Activity

- Some students are actively discussing and working together in pairs.
- Some students are working in groups and others are focused on their tasks.

Whiteboard Details

- The whiteboard is mostly empty, with only a few words written on it.
- The whiteboard has notes written on it.

Project Focus

- There is one group collaborating on a project at the back.
- Students are involved in various projects and materials scattered across the desks.

Teacher's Action

- The teacher is giving instructions.
- The teacher is talking to the class.

Decorations

- The walls have several colorful posters.
- The walls are decorated with posters.

Details	Classroom A	Classroom B
Teacher's Action
Student Activity
Project Focus
Computer Usage
Decorations
Whiteboard Details

