

STUDYING AS YOU GET OLDER

Most students who (a) well at secondary school (b) the decision to carry on into further or higher education. As you get older, you often have more options, which usually means you can choose to (c) the course or subjects that you enjoy and are good at. Of course, you'll probably still have to (d) lots of assignments and exams if you want to (e) your best and (f) good progress. The main difference as you get older is that now you generally need to (g) your own plans, because your teachers won't always be telling you what to (h) and when. And your parents may give you more freedom, too. Imagine what it's like in the UK, where university students often live away from home. That means they need to (i) chores themselves. They need to (j) the shopping and washing and probably (k) their own meals. With so much studying and other work, it's good to stay fit and (l) sport and physical exercise. This can also help you to meet other people and (m) friends with them. If you (n) a little effort, these can be the best years of your life!
