

NAME:

CLASS:

Leia o artigo Pink Month disponível no link abaixo

<https://www.afro.who.int/news/global-effort-raise-awareness-breast-cancer-october-has-been-designated-pink-month-pink-month>

1. What is the main purpose of the Pink October Campaign?

- a) To celebrate women's health
- b) To raise awareness about breast cancer
- c) To support research on all types of cancer

2. Who organized the breast cancer awareness session for the WHO Ethiopia Staff Association?

- a) WHO Headquarters
- b) Dr. Fikir Melese
- c) Ethiopian government

3. What technique was taught during the breast cancer awareness session?

- a) Healthy eating habits
- b) Self-examination techniques
- c) Fitness exercises

4. According to Dr. Fikir, what percentage of early-stage breast cancers are curable?

- a) 50%
- b) 90%
- c) 75%

5. Why is it important to diagnose breast cancer early?

- a) It prevents the need for surgery
- b) Early-stage cancers are more curable
- c) It reduces cancer spreading to other organs

6. What does Dr. Fikir recommend women do regularly to detect early signs of breast cancer?

- a) Exercise regularly
- b) Visit the doctor once a year
- c) Self-examine monthly

7. How many women die from breast cancer worldwide each year?

- a) 1 million
- b) 500,000
- c) 100,000

8. In resource-poor settings, most women are diagnosed with breast cancer at what stage?

- a) Early stage
- b) Mid stage
- c) Advanced stage

9. What type of treatment is often used for early-stage breast cancer?

- a) Chemotherapy only
- b) Treatments that conserve the breast
- c) Immediate surgery

10. Who expressed appreciation for the breast cancer awareness opportunity?

- a) The WHO leadership
- b) Male staff members
- c) The women staff who participated

11. What was a key message from Dr. Fikir regarding monthly self-examinations?

- a) They should be done after every doctor's visit
- b) They help detect early signs of breast cancer
- c) They should be done twice a year

12. How did the WHO Ethiopia leadership respond to the breast cancer awareness initiative?

- a) They criticized the initiative
- b) They were indifferent
- c) They commended WESA's efforts

13. What type of cancer was primarily discussed in the awareness session?

- a) Breast cancer
- b) Lung cancer
- c) Skin cancer

14. What is the email contact provided for more information on the program?

- a) fikirwesa@who.int
- b) fikirm@who.int
- c) fikireth@who.org

15. What is one of the key issues in resource-poor settings regarding breast cancer?

- a) Lack of medical staff
- b) Breast cancer diagnosed at an advanced stage
- c) Inaccessibility to food

16. What does the Pink Month campaign focus on apart from awareness?

- a) Early identification and symptoms
- b) Global partnerships
- c) Promoting fitness

17. What was the reaction of the women staff to the orientation session?

- a) They were indifferent
- b) They asked for more frequent sessions
- c) They expressed appreciation

18. How does the leadership of WHO Ethiopia view their role regarding the health of their staff?

- a) Only focus on global health
- b) Proactive about ensuring their staff's health
- c) Focus on local issues only

19. What is one of the benefits of early detection mentioned in the article?

- a) It reduces hospital costs
- b) It conserves the breast
- c) It avoids surgery

20. Which organization is primarily responsible for organizing Pink Month globally?

- a) United Nations
- b) World Health Organization (WHO)
- c) International Cancer Society