Name _____ Affect vs. Effect

Affect vs. Effect

Affect

- Almost always used as a verb
- Means "to influence" something

Effect

- Almost always used as a noun
- Means "impact" or "result"

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence with affect or effect.

1. The appearance of the dog had a startling _____ on the child.

2. The _____ of the raise I received on my budget is negligible.

3. Will your breakup will _____ your friendship with his friends?

4. I try to _____ positive change where I can.

5. The _____ of this situation is that I no longer trust you.

6. I hope that my cold doesn't _____ you.

7. Yoga has a relaxing _____ on me.

8. Sugar has a crazy _____ on me, so I don't consume it.

9. All of our choices _____ other people.

10. Her new haircut is going for the military buzzcut _____ .

© 15Worksheets.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS