

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

1) Fill in the Blank: Fill in the blank with: that, who, when, which

1. The passengers, __ are waiting for their luggage, are angry for the delay.
2. The luggage, __ is next to the counter, is not checked.
3. The waiting room, __ travelers can relax before their flights, offers comfortable seating and refreshments.
4. The moment __ the plane lands is always exciting for first-time flyers.
5. The flight attendant, __ serves the food, is not nice.

2) Read the following sets of sentences related to the airport. In each group, one sentence has an incorrect use of a relative clause. Underline the incorrect sentence and explain the mistake.

1.
  - a) The passenger who is carrying the red suitcase is going to New York.
  - b) I'm waiting for the flight that it leaves at 5 PM.
  - c) The plane that is landing is from Paris.

2.

- a) The woman who works at the check-in counter is very friendly.
- b) The gate where our flight is departing from is crowded.
- c) I need to speak to the agent what is in charge of boarding.

3.

- a) The airport that we are at is very large.
- b) The travelers who are sitting over there are travelling to London.
- c) The flight when we are waiting for is delayed.

4.

- a) The luggage which is being loaded onto the plane belongs to the passengers.
- b) The terminal where I usually arrive has a new restaurant.
- c) I'm standing in a line who it's not moving.

