A	Uptown Funk My favourite song is Uptown Funk. It was sung by Mark Benson featuring Bruno Mars. It's a pop song. It's really catchy – every time I hear it, it stays in my head for the rest of the day. It always makes me feel happy. When I listen to this song, my body will move to the music and dance! This song was released in 2014, but I still listen to it. I think this song will be popular forever!
B	Shosholoz My parents are from Africa, and both of them love folk music very much! My favourite song is Shosholoz. It is a Ndebele folk song from Zimbabwe, but it became popular in South Africa. It was sung by Ndebele workers in the South African mines. This song is interesting because one sings the first line and the rest respond to it. This song's got a great rhythm. It is lively and cheerful, and it makes me very happy.
C	Into the Unknown I love the song Into the Unknown sung by Idina Menzel and AURORA the most. It's a song from the movie Frozen 2. This song is about a dialogue between the main character of Frozen 2, Elsa, and a voice she's hearing from far, far away. It's actually my sister's favourite song – she plays it all the time and now I love it, too. It's a really happy song and it always makes me smile.
