

Read the texts. Choose the correct answers.

Two teenagers were arrested for _____ their school building yesterday. The two boys broke windows in the building and sprayed paint over it. The police said the community would not put up with _____ of this kind. The teenagers are too young to go to _____, but the police hope the _____ they receive will be serious enough to teach them a lesson.

The police are asking for help from the public after _____ got away with two valuable paintings. The criminals _____ into the town's art gallery and _____ the two paintings last night. The alarm sounded at the gallery and the police arrived, but the criminals managed to _____ through a back door. The art gallery is offering a _____ of £10,000 for the safe return of the two paintings.

Seventy-two-year-old grandmother Beryl Bridges was shocked when she saw a _____ stealing someone's wallet near the station on Saturday. She _____ after the man and caught him when he _____ and fell. 'It makes me really angry when people _____ crimes,' Beryl said. 'They shouldn't get away with it!' The man will appear in _____ tomorrow.

