Writing Ex. > Task 1 - Analyzing Types of Charts

A. Complete the information below using the words in the box.

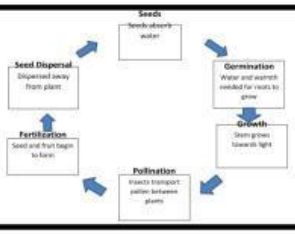

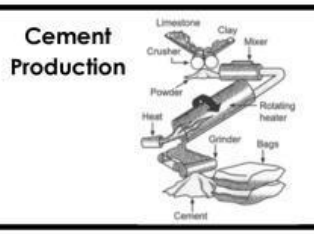

This type of figure can be used to show (1) _____. The horizontal (2) _____ often indicates the time, and the (3) _____ one often shows what changes over the time.

These (4) _____ are useful for illustrating (5) _____ between items or (6) _____ of items. This one refers to females and males at school.

You can use a figure like this to show how a whole is composed of (7) _____. Here, each (8) _____ indicates a (9) _____ of the whole.

Transport Type	1995	2005	2015
Air	2	8	20
Bicycle	2	1	2
Motorbike	5	3	6
Bus	56	50	42
Rail	38	48	60
Total	103	110	130

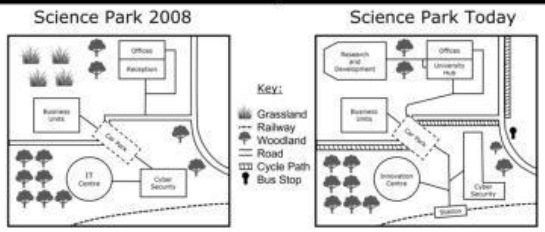

You should present data like this if you need to give precise (10) _____. This example contains seven (11) _____ and four (12) _____.

This type of figure is useful for representing a (13) _____. Each box represents one (14) _____ in the process.

Figures like this are also used to represent a process. They can (15) _____ the (16) _____ of an object, system, or activity.

This type of diagram indicates the (17) _____ a specific area has undergone over a period. Each map contains similar and different (18) _____ that need to be identified.

WORD BANK

illustrate	numbers
categories	places
trends	parts
changes	stage
columns	figures
vertical	process
comparisons	rows
percentage	axis
segment	features

Authored by Andrés Barón-Ávila
MA Education and Technology – UCL – IOE

LIVEWORKSHEETS