

What is the meaning of the expression in the conversation?

- | | |
|---|---|
| a. "Many individuals struggle to make up their minds when faced with choices, such as purchasing items." b. "In discussions about finances, some people mention that they can afford to enjoy various experiences, but they still mind their expenses." c. "It is common for individuals to wish that others would mind their own business, particularly when personal inquiries arise." d. "When considering invitations for vacations, many find themselves of two minds about attending, weighing fun against other commitments." e. "After a stressful period, many believe that a good night out can help to take their minds off pressing responsibilities." f. "In monotonous jobs, individuals often express that they might go out of their minds with boredom if they don't seek change." g. "It's often said that 'Great minds think alike!' when people find they share similar thoughts or approaches." h. "Some people ponder whether healing is truly a matter of mind over matter, emphasizing the connection between mental attitude and recovery." i. "During stressful times, the idea of a vacation can often feel like the last thing on one's mind, as daily challenges take priority." | 1. To feel extremely anxious or bored. 2. To decide on something after consideration. 3. To care about or pay attention to something. 4. To focus on one's own affairs; not interfere in others' matters. 5. To distract from worries or problems. 6. To feel uncertain or indecisive about something. 7. Mental strength can overcome physical challenges. 8. Something not currently being thought about or is low priority. 9. Intelligent people often have similar ideas. |
|---|---|

LATEST BLOG POSTS

alike ~~up~~ off on out over own two

- a make up your mind
- b mind your _____ business
- c I'm of _____ minds
- d take your mind _____ something
- e go _____ of your mind
- f Great minds think _____.
- g mind _____ matter
- h the last thing _____ my mind

Life in Paris, Part 2: Only One Month Left

The Best Tour Companies in Europe in 2019

Desc

Read and complete

- a Vacations? You want to plan a vacation?
I'm sorry, that really is the last thing on my mind
right now.
- b I don't mean to sound rude, but you know, she really does ask too many personal questions.
I wish she'd learn to _____
_____.
- c I'm _____ about this job offer. I really don't know what to do.
They want an answer today but I need more time to think.
- d Come on, we can do it. Let's give it one more try.
Jon, you take that side, I'll take this one.
And remember, it's a question of _____
_____.
- e _____! I'm tired of waiting for you to choose.
- f Hey! Is that your new cell phone? I have exactly the same one. Well, you know what they say,
_____.
- g Where have you been? Do you know what time it is? I was _____ with worry!
- h Come on! Let's go away for a couple of days. It'll help you _____ things.