

BAHAMIAN HISTORY - PERIOD 5

By the early 1800's these person started to leave The Bahamas because the black population had outgrown the whites.

Select one:

- True
- False

In the 1720's Governor Nicholas Trott brought the first significant cargo of slaves to The Bahamas.

Select one:

- True
- False

Delancey town was a settlement in New Providence where Run Away slaves and Free Blacks lived.

Select one:

- True
- False

Adelaide, Carmichael and Gambier were all Liberated African Villages, located in New Providence.

Select one:

- True
- False

BAHAMIAN HISTORY - PERIOD 5

Stephen Dillet, John Patrick Dean and Edward P. Laroda, were all coloured slave owners in the years 1833 & 1834

Select one:

- True
- False

Pompey and Black Dick were two of the many slaves in The Bahamas who attempted uprisings on their plantations.

Select one:

- True
- False

Slavery was Abolished in the Bahamas in 1844.

Select one:

- True
- False

