

Using the Apostrophe to Show Ownership

We add 'S to nouns to show ownership. The 'S goes on the name of the owner.

If the noun ends in S then add the ' only .

teacher - There is no S on the end of this word so add 'S

The _____ bag is big and pink.

- A) teacher's b) teachers'

pupilS ← this word ends in an S so just add the **'

The _____ bags are on their backs.

- a) pupil's b) pupils'

Children

The _____ toy is a lot of fun.

- a) childrens' b) children's

Tom

_____ sister went happily down the slide.

- a) Tom's Toms'

TerryAnn

_____ dress has orange polka dots.

a) TerryAnns

b) TerryAnn's

Penny

_____ kite flew in the wind.

a) Penny's

b) Pennies

Ladies  this word ends in an S

The _____ dresses are very elegant.

a) Ladie's

b) ladies'

teachers  this word ends in an S

The _____ meeting will begin soon.

a) teacher's

b) teachers'

babies  this word ends in an S

The _____ faces look adorable.

a) babies'

b) babies's

James  this word ends in an S

_____ car is sporty and shiny.

a) James'

b) Jame's