

announce create help know
make publish solve watch

The Belgian detective

The character of the Belgian detective Hercule Poirot ¹was created by the writer Agatha Christie in the 1920s. Between 1920 and 1975 over 800 Poirot novels and short stories ²_____. In the stories, Poirot sometimes works alone, but usually he ³_____ by his assistant, Captain Hastings. Poirot always dresses smartly and he ⁴_____ for his neat moustache and his polite manners. He is very intelligent and believes that all crimes ⁵_____ by using the 'little grey cells' in your brain.

A lot of the Poirot stories ⁶_____ into popular films in the 1970s, and even today stories about Poirot ⁷_____ by millions of people each year on TV. When, finally, Poirot's death ⁸_____ in a 1975 novel, an article about his life appeared in the newspaper The Times, as if he had been a real person!