Grammar & words

In, under, and on are prepositions.
Prepositions describe where things and people are.

The teddy bear is in the bag.

The kite is under the slide.

The bag is on the chair.

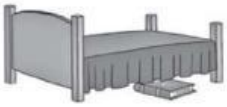

1 Look and write.

1 Their teddy bear is under the slide.

2 Our ball is _____ his head.

3 The book is _____ the bed.

4 Our kite is _____ the bag.

5 Their book is _____ the chair.

© Oxford University Press
Permission grant[illegible]
LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 Unscramble the words for people in your family.

1

mmo _____

2

add _____

3

robhert _____

4

stisre _____

5

tanu _____

6

lunce _____

7

scouni _____

3 Look and write.

This is Rosy and her family.

1

This is her _____

2

This is her _____

3

This is her _____

Rosy is my _____

4

This is her _____

5

This is her _____

6

This is her _____

© Oxford University Press
Permission grant[illegible]
LIVEWORKSHEETS

Our, their and its are possessive adjectives.

We use our to talk about something we have.

We use their to talk about something they have.

We use its to talk about something an animal or object has.

4 Look and write.

our	their	its	mom	uncle	aunt	dad

1  This is _____ _____.

2  This is _____ _____.

3  This is _____ house.

_____ door is white.

4  This is _____ _____.

5  This is _____ _____.

6  This is _____ car.

© Oxford University Press
Permission grant[illegible]
LIVEWORKSHEETS