

Genesis: Noah builds an ark

Name: _____

God was no longer happy with the world he created. The people had turned away from him and were living wicked lives. God decided to send a flood to wash away everything that was bad. But there was one old man, Noah, who still loved and obeyed God. So God asked Noah to build a big wooden ark. He gave him special instructions to follow. Then God told him to gather two of every living creature on Earth, one male and one female.
