

Lie or Lay 2

Choose "lie," "lay," or "laid" to complete each sentence.

1. Before I went to bed, I _____ (lie, lay, laid) my clothes out for tomorrow.
2. Every afternoon, we _____ (lie, lay, laid) on the bed for a nap.
3. When they're cold, they _____ (lie, lay, laid) a blanket on their legs.
4. All of last week I _____ (lie, lay, laid) in bed feeling sick.
5. Our pet dogs like to _____ (lie, lay, laid) under the table.
6. Yesterday, the boys _____ (lie, lay, laid) their backpacks outside.
7. While we meet, they _____ (lie, lay, laid) their purses on the couch.
8. Susanna and Maribel often _____ (lie, lay, laid) on the floor to make posters.
9. Last night we all _____ (lie, lay, laid) awake until midnight.
10. Yesterday, our teacher _____ (lie, lay, laid) on the ground, injured.

Complete each sentence with the form of to lay or to lie that is appropriate.

1. Please (lay/lie) down that book and listen to me.
2. He was (laying/lying) on his back in the hot sun.
3. Sometimes she (lays/lies) in the hammock for hours.
4. The fugitive (laid/lay) down his gun.
5. Sometimes I like to (lay/lie) down and rest after lunch.
6. I thought that you (laid/lay) the magazine on that shelf.

