

Name _____

Date _____

A. Write short, concise notes of each clip you hear:

1.

"Imperfections Don't Exist: The Lesson Of The Cracked Pot"

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

2.

The Pencil's Tale - a story that everyone should hear

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

shutterstock.com · 177774746

B. Write a pragmatic analysis in 200 words for each audio clip. Do not summarize the clip.

|                                          |                                |
|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| "Imperfections Don't Exist:              | The Lesson Of The Cracked Pot" |
| Were the cracks a welcomed imperfection? |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |
|                                          |                                |

|                                   |                                   |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| The Pencil's Tale                 | a story that everyone should hear |
| What does it mean to be a pencil? |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |
|                                   |                                   |