

WRITING

Put the phrases from the box in the correct column.

too much noise
good health service
high crime rate
beautiful buildings
easy shopping
air pollution
heavy traffic
green space

What I like about city life	What I dislike about city life

I love / dislike city life.

First, ...

Second, ...

Third, ...

In conclusion, ..

What do you like or dislike about living in a city?

Here's an outline for a sample essay about likes and dislikes of city life:

I. Introduction

- Briefly introduce the topic of living in a city.
- Mention that city life has both positive and negative aspects.

II. Body Paragraph 1: Likes about city life

- Main idea: Convenience and access to amenities.
 - Supporting detail 1: Shops, restaurants, and services are nearby.

- Supporting detail 2: Variety of entertainment options, such as theaters, museums, and parks.
- Supporting detail 3: Opportunities for social interaction and meeting people from diverse backgrounds.
- Supporting detail 4: Access to public transportation makes getting around easier.

III. Body Paragraph 2: Dislikes about city life

- Main idea: Challenges of living in a city.
 - Supporting detail 1: Constant noise from traffic, construction, and crowds.
 - Supporting detail 2: Higher cost of living, including rent and daily expenses.
 - Supporting detail 3: Overcrowded public spaces, especially during rush hours.
 - Supporting detail 4: Lack of green spaces and limited opportunities for outdoor activities.

IV. Conclusion

- Summarize the likes and dislikes mentioned.
- Give a personal opinion or reflection on whether the pros outweigh the cons.
- Suggest whether living in a city is right for everyone or depends on personal preferences.

This outline provides a structure to explore both sides of city life, allowing for a balanced discussion.