PAPILLON

Henri Charriere lived in Paris in 1920s. He was a thief and he robbed banks. People called him 'Papillon' because he had a tattoo of a butterfly on his chest. In 1931, the police arrested Papillon for a murder. He wasn't guilty but they sent him to a prison for dangerous criminals in South America.

Papillon tried to escape nine times and he had many adventures. Once, he escaped in a small boat and lived in an Indian village in the jungle for a few months before the police found him. Every time Papillon escaped, the police caught him and brought him back.

Finally, the police sent him to the prison on Devil's Island. This was a horrible place and prisoners never escaped from it. But this did not stop Papillon. He wanted to get away and he started to plan another escape. One day, he jumped off a cliff into the sea. After thirteen years in prison, he finally escaped.

Papillon got to Venezuela and there he met a beautiful woman called Rita. They fell in love and got married. Papillon started a nightclub and soon became a successful businessman. One day, an earthquake destroyed the area and his club. Papillon decided to return to France and write a book about his life. The book was a bestseller and Henri Charriere became rich and famous. Henri died in 1973. The same year, a Hollywood film, based on his book, appeared in cinemas.
