

NAME: DATE:

CLASS: MARK: ____ /100

(Time: 60 minutes)

Vocabulary & Grammar

A Choose the correct answer.

- 1 Wear something to the party; jeans and a T-shirt will be just fine.
A baggy C formal
B conservative D casual
- 2 The South American red belly toad is regarded as one of the most poisonous in the world.
A amphibians C mammals
B rodents D reptiles
- 3 The fact that Mr Benson donates a lot of his time and money to charity makes him a very man.
A modest C generous
B organised D patient
- 4 He is planning to bring the subject of new recycling bins at the next council meeting.
A out C about
B around D up
- 5 They always the time they spend with their grandchildren.
A treasure C seek
B honour D preserve
- 6 The Australian Desert is to the red kangaroo.
A habitat C estuary
B shelter D home
- 7 Sophie is a mean person who is always jealous other people's success.
A for C with
B about D of
- 8 The campaign aims to awareness of local environmental issues.
A raise C capture
B evolve D grab
- 9 Deforestation puts thousands of plant and animal species risk of extinction.
A in C at
B under D to
- 10 Can you hand me the dictionary? I want to look a word.
A up C after
B down on D up to

(Marks: ____
10 x 2 20)

B Choose the correct answer.

- 1 Let's go home. That wildlife documentary at 9:00 and I want to watch it.
A is starting C will start
B is going to start D starts
- 2 You on shirts for an hour! Can't you make up your mind and buy one?
A 've been trying C try
B 're trying D 'll try
- 3 Jason really funny with his new spiky hairstyle.
A is looking C looks
B has looked D will have looked
- 4 We take the recyclables to the recycling centre, as a truck came and collected them.
A needn't C mustn't
B didn't need to D ought not to
- 5 He his friends since they went to the concert last week.
A doesn't see C won't see
B hasn't seen D has to see
- 6 All the lights have just gone out. I an electrician immediately.
A call C 'll call
B 'll have called D 've been calling
- 7 Why don't you come over to our house when you some free time this afternoon?
A 'll have C 've had
B 're having D have
- 8 The scientists Antarctica to study the environment there for the next three months.
A have gone to C have gone in
B have been in D has to see

- 9 This time on Monday, Bill in his new job.
A is working C will be working
B will have worked D works
- 10 By the time we get to the city centre, the shops Let's go tomorrow.
A will have closed C will close
B are going to close D are closing

Marks: _____
10 x 2 20

Communication

C Choose the correct response.

- 1 A: Let's join an environmental group.
B: a That's an excellent idea!
b Yes, I suppose you're right.
- 2 A: I don't think we've met before. I'm Patrick Ale.
B: a Nice to meet you, too.
b It's a pleasure to meet you.
- 3 A: Bye, I'm off to the park now.
B: a Never mind. You're here now.
b Take care. See you later.
- 4 A: We don't recycle because we don't know where the bins are.
B: a That's no excuse.
b I don't think it's a good idea.
- 5 A: Come on – we must go.
B: a Fine, thanks.
b Just a minute.

Marks: _____
5 x 2 10

Reading

D You are going to read a text about a European people. For questions 1-4, mark the answer that fits best from options A, B, C or D.

It may surprise you that there are still people in Europe who live a lifestyle that is thousands of years old. The Sami people live across four countries – Russia, Finland, Sweden and Norway. Though they have their own flag, anthem and parliament buildings, there is no Sami nation. That's because they are nomads who migrate according to the seasons for the good of the animal at the centre of their culture – the reindeer.

To live as a Sami, you need to be tough enough to cope with and work in freezing conditions. Everyone needs to help keep the reindeer under control. That means being brave and strong, especially when it's time to move on. Despite living alongside people for thousands of years, the reindeer remain wild, so it's impossible to know how they will react when somebody tries to stop them in their tracks. The Sami use portable fence barriers, ropes and even their hands to make the reindeer go where they need them to go. If just one reindeer panics and turns around, the whole herd could follow, so the Sami need to be confident enough to take hold of it.

Perhaps because their working lives are so tiring, the Sami are not known for spending their leisure time participating in games and athletic activities. Musical performances, however, are an important part of their culture. Traditional Sami music is called joik, and consists of songs that the singer may compose or adapt while he or she performs, accompanied by a hand drum. Joik songs contain few words. The Sami use the human voice as an instrument to express something important to the individual singer, but without describing their thoughts or feelings openly. The Sami don't see joik as being for entertainment, but for reliving experiences and making connections with the past.

It's true to say times have changed a little for the Sami. Many of them use modern vehicles like snowmobiles instead of traditional sledges these days, for example. In recent times, they have developed a written language for the first time. And some have taken advantage of the growth of tourism by using the sides of roads that tour companies and travellers use to sell colourful Sami clothing, goods made from reindeer leather and other items. However, they still remain true to their deep-rooted traditions.

1 What do the Sami people not have?

- A a homeland
- B politicians
- C an image to represent them
- D work

2 According to the text, handling reindeer is not easy because they are

- A nervous.
- B strong.
- C uncontrollable.
- D unpredictable.

3 Why is singing important to the Sami people?

- A as a way of telling stories
- B as a way of having fun
- C as a way of expressing their creativity
- D as a link to their history

4 What are the Sami now using that they didn't use in the past?

- A roads
- B text
- C money
- D modern clothing

E Read the text again and mark the following statements as T (true) or F (false).

- 1 The Sami lead a traditional way of life.
- 2 Sami people are keen on sport.
- 3 A small orchestra plays joik songs in celebrations.
- 4 Tourism provides a source of income for the Sami.