

Look and write the words. Then match. There is one example

1

Read and write one word. There is one example. (one point each)

Hello, my name's Ben. I'm a student!
My classroom is big. There are twenty desks. The desks are brown, but the chairs are purple!
There's a whiteboard and six posters on the wall.
There are two bookcases and three cupboards.
My teacher is Mrs Green. There is a computer on her desk and a lot of pencils!

1. How many desks are there? twenty
2. What colour are the chairs? _____
3. Where are the posters? on the _____
4. How many cupboards are there? _____

5. Who is Ben's teacher? Mrs _____

6. Where are the pencils? on the _____ Look and write is, isn't, are or aren't. There is one example.

1. How many desks are there? There are three.

2. How many rulers are there? There _____ one.

3. How many bags are there? There _____ ten.

4. Is there a bookcase? Yes, there _____.

5. Is there a television? No, there _____.

6. Are there books? Yes, there _____.