Adverbs of frequency

Adverbs of frequency tell us how often something happens.

She	always usually often sometimes rarely/seldom never	comes early.	He is	always usually often sometimes rarely/seldom never	late.

Read the sentences and circle.

- We use adverbs of frequency before / after the main verb.
- We use adverbs of frequency before / after the verb 'to be'.

Ex1: Write the sentences with adverbs of frequency.

1. John is late. (never) → .....
2. The children eat ice cream. (sometimes) → .....
3. I go to the cinema. (often) → .....
4. We have lunch at a restaurant. (seldom) → .....
5. You are polite to your teachers. (always) → .....
6. Katie helps her mum. (often) → .....
7. The boys are funny. (sometimes) → .....
8. Ivan and I do our homework. (always) → .....
9. Dad washes his car. (never) → .....
10. Cara is very kind. (usually) → .....
11. I'm late. (always) → .....
12. She goes to the theatre on Fridays. (usually) → .....
13. Does he visit his grandparents? (sometimes) → .....
14. They come to our parties. (often) → .....
15. My dad cooks dinner. (never) → .....
16. We are rude to people. (never) → .....

LIVEWORKSHEETS