

How Do You Learn Best?

Read the question and choose the first answer that comes to mind!

Question	Answer
1. When learning a new skill, what do you prefer to do first?	a) Read instructions or watch a tutorial. b) Listen to someone explain how to do it. c) Try doing it yourself and learn as you go.
2. How do you best prepare for an exam?	a) Highlight and take notes in books or handouts. c) Do practical exercises or physical activities related to the content. d) Discuss the topics with a study partner.
3. When you learn new English words, do you prefer to	a) See the words written and use pictures or flashcards b) Hear someone say the words and repeat them out loud c) Write the words down or use hand movements to remember them
4. When you are learning about a new topic, do you	a) Prefer to read a book or look at pictures b) Like to listen to a teacher explain or discuss with others c) Enjoy doing hands-on activities or experiments
5. When learning grammar or vocabulary, do you:	a) Like to see examples and diagrams on the board b) Learn best by listening to explanations and practicing aloud c) Prefer using games or physical activities to reinforce learning
4. In English class, when you do a project, do you prefer to:	a) Create a poster or a visual presentation b) Record a video or explain it to someone else c) Build a model or act out a scene
5. When you have to remember something, do you:	a) Visualize it in your mind or use color-coded notes b) Repeat it out loud or ask someone to quiz you c) Act it out or use gestures to help you recall it

6. What do you do when you need to memorize something?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Draw pictures or mind maps.</li> <li>b) Repeat the information aloud or sing it.</li> <li>c) Use objects or movements to remember it.</li> </ul>
7. How do you prefer to learn about a difficult topic?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) By looking at charts, images, or diagrams.</li> <li>b) By listening to a detailed explanation.</li> <li>d) By reading practical examples or case studies.</li> </ul>
8. When you tell a story, would you rather	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) write it</li> <li>b) tell it out loud</li> <li>c) act it out</li> </ul>
9. When you see the word "d- o- g", what do you do first?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) think of a picture of a particular dog</li> <li>b) say the word "dog" to yourself silently</li> <li>c) Imagine the feeling of being with a dog (petting it, running with it, etc.)</li> </ul>
10. You understand English class better when	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) The teacher is writing on the board and talking about the topic.</li> <li>b) There is an audiovisual element that accompanies the teacher's explanation.</li> <li>c) The teacher explains by giving examples and doing activities about the topic.</li> </ul>
11. How do you learn the topics better?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Reading them</li> <li>b) Listening to them</li> <li>c) Seeing examples</li> </ul>
12. You prefer the English class to be	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) With explanatory videos about the topics</li> <li>b) With more educational activities</li> <li>c) With text guides to do in class</li> </ul>
13. When learning new English grammar rules, do you?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Prefer to see the rules written down and study examples.</li> <li>b) Learn best when someone explains the rules and you repeat them.</li> <li>c) Use games or real-life activities to apply the rules in practice.</li> </ul>
14. When learning through a story or narrative, do you?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Prefer to read the story yourself and visualize the events.</li> <li>b) Enjoy hearing someone tell the story aloud.</li> <li>c) Like to act out parts of the story or use role play</li> </ul>

15. How do you feel more confident learning English pronunciation?	a) By reading and seeing the phonetic spelling. b) By listening to the pronunciation repeatedly. c) By physically moving your mouth and practicing sounds aloud.
  Total, your a's, b's, and c's   # of a's _____  # of b's _____  # of c's _____  	