

QUESTIONS

We use comparative adjectives to show how two things are different.

TRUE

FALSE

The word “smaller” is a comparative adjective.

The word “most beautiful” is a superlative adjective.

The comparative form of “tall” is “tallest.”

The word “faster” is a superlative adjective.

The superlative form of “big” is “biggest.”

We usually add “-er” to make comparative adjectives.

We add “-est” to adjectives to make them superlative.

The word “better” is a comparative adjective.