

CAN / COULD

Ability (schopnost)	I can swim. I can't see it.	I could do it. I couldn't find it.
Request (žádost)	Can you help me?	Could you help me?
Permission (povolení)	Can I touch the amulet?	Could I see a friend?

Přítomný čas (present simple): can, could (někdy v otázce) minulý čas (past simple): could

1. Use the words in brackets. Rewrite the sentences.

You want to have some cheese. (could)

Could I have some cheese?

You ask your teacher to tell you the time. (could)

_____?

You ask a friend to help you to carry some books. (can)

_____?

You want to have a party. Ask your mum. (could)

_____?

You want to use a stranger's mobile phone. (could)

_____?

You ask your friend to help you with your homework. (can)

_____?

2. Complete the sentences. Use can or could and the verbs in brackets.

When they got to the cave, Max and Holly _____ (not see) in the dark.

Holly _____ (not read) Egyptian hieroglyphs when she was a child.

But now she _____ (understand) Egyptian hieroglyphs.

I _____ (not understand) English four years ago.

I _____ (speak) English now, but I _____ (not speak) Egyptian.

3. Choose can/can't or could/couldn't.

_____ you speak English now?

Yes, _____.

_____ he see into the future last year?

No, _____.

_____ he see into the future at the moment?

Yes, _____.

_____ we swim six years ago?

No, _____.

_____ they play computer games yesterday?

Yes _____.

Match.

1 ___

1 Now I can

A can help me.

2 ___

2 The amulet

B see inside?

3 ___

3 I couldn't

C take me to the pyramid?

4 ___

4 Could you

D read hieroglyphs before.

5 ___

5 Can I

E break codes.