

BUSY DAY

So, today I _____ go to the store because I need to pick up some things for tonight. We're having a movie night, and I have to bring snacks. I should've done this earlier, but I've been super busy all week. Anyway, I'm _____ grab chips, soda, and maybe some candy too, since everyone loves that stuff. I _____ make sure everything's ready before people arrive, _____ I hate being unprepared.

I told you last time that I was planning a small get-together, right? Well, it _____ got bigger, so now I have to make sure there's enough food for everyone. I'm thinking I'll order pizza later, but I dunno if I'll have time. I might've or should've asked someone to help out. Oh well, I'll figure it out.

After the store, I'm gonna head back home, clean up a bit, and get the living room ready. I need to move some chairs around and set up the projector. It's kinda a lot of work, but it's worth it. I _____ everyone's gonna love the setup! I _____ wish I could relax, but I _____ get all this done first.
