Linh loves preparing for the Lunar New Year festival with her mom and grandma every year. In her family, it is a special tradition to make sticky rice cakes together. The cakes are filled with green beans and pork. Linh always feels excited when making the filling by herself. Her grandmother believes that she can make it nicely because she is clever and careful. Linh also helps to decorate the house with red lanterns and bright lights. After decorating, the house looks so amazing and jolly. However, her little brother sometimes doesn't want to help with the decoration. Linh told him not to be rude so that everyone can have a good time.
