

Ex.1 Fill in the gaps with mustn't or don't/doesn't have to.

1. You drink this water; it's contaminated.
2. She finish the project today if she's too tired.
3. You pay to enter the museum it's free for students.
4. She go to the store; we've already bought groceries.
5. We forget to feed the cat.
6. You reply to the email right away; it's not urgent.
7. We forget to return the library books on time.
8. He come with us if he's busy.
9. He pay for parking; it's free on weekends.
10. You drive without a seatbelt; it's against the law.

Ex.2. Put in "have to" in the correct form

1. She finish her work before she can leave.
2. We work overtime this week because of the deadline.
3. They cancel the match due to bad weather yesterday.
4. If you want to get a sample, you fill in this form.
5. Nobody likes work at Christmas.
6. She do homework before she was allowed to play computer games.
7. work on weekends can be really exhausting.
8. By the time our manager arrived, our team prepare the presentation.
9. To succeed in this job, you be both organized and responsible.
10. She hates iron shirts.
11. I dislike take part in this competition.

Ex.3. Fill in the blanks with had better or had better not.

1. You forget to bring your ID to the airport; it's required for boarding.
2. She tell him the truth before he finds out from someone else.
3. We leave soon if we want to get a parking spot at the concert.
4. You eat that cake if you're trying to lose weight.
5. He spend so much time playing video games; he has important exams coming up.
6. You reduce your screen time if you want to improve your circadian rhythm.
7. We go to the doctor if this illness doesn't clear up soon.
8. You take that job offer without thinking it through; it might not be what you want.

Ex.4. Put in should or had better.

1. You take an umbrella or you'll get wet. It's going to rain.
2. Sarah see a doctor if her cough doesn't improve.
3. You always apologize for being late; it's polite.
4. We book our flights soon, otherwise prices are going up fast.
5. You stop smoking; it's bad for your health.
6. They leave now if they want to arrive on time.
7. I think you try the new restaurant downtown—it's fantastic!
8. You be careful with that glass; it looks fragile.
9. If you can't stop itching and sneezing, you take antihistamine pills.