

1P2. VOCABULARY EXAM 1

1. All the people who work on a vessel are called the _____.
2. A word that is a synonym of sailor or seaman is _____.
3. The engineers work in the _____ Department.
4. An Ordinary Seaman works in the _____ Department.
5. The chief cook works in the _____ Department.
6. Another word for Captain is _____.
7. The officer who is the maximum authority after the Captain is the _____ Officer.
8. A member of the crew who is not an officer is a _____.
9. The person who supervises all the ratings on the deck and who is not an officer is the _____ or boatswain.
10. A member of the deck department with no experience or very little experience is a(n) _____.
11. A member of the deck department with experience (usually more than 1 or 2 years experience) is a(n) _____.
12. The officer with the highest rank in the Engine Department is the _____ Engineer.
13. The officer with the second highest rank in the Engine Department is the _____ Engineer or _____ Engineer. (Two words)
14. A member of the engine department who cleans and has no experience is a(n) _____.
15. A(n) _____ is a member of the engine department who lubricates moving components of the engines.
16. The person who is in charge of the galley is the _____. (Two words)
17. A _____ is a person who steers a ship or boat.
18. A sailor who manoeuvres and guides ships from sea to port and from port to sea, and who is not a member of the crew is a(n) _____.
19. I work very _____ hours (= a lot of).
20. I work _____, I work only 20 hours a week. (Two words)
21. Working part time is the opposite of working _____.
(Two words)
22. I am _____, so I am my own boss.
23. The Chief Cook _____ 15.000 a year (cobra).
24. What are the _____ (=responsibilities) of an Able Seaman?
25. An _____ is in charge of lubricating the machinery.
26. I work 40 hours _____ week.
27. The Master is responsible _____ the ship, her cargo and the crew.