Tekst 1.

Mike,
I'm happy that you've decided to try snowboarding. You asked if you should have your own snowboard. If you're still not sure that this is the sport for you, I think it would be better to rent one. Then, if you find that you love this sport, you can buy your own snowboard. Remember to tell the rental person that you need a beginner's board. They are a different shape. And try on the boots before you go out on the hillside! Please, share some photos of your first day out.

Bye, Andy

Andy is writing to Mike to ...

- A. persuade him to give up snowboarding.
- B. warn him against renting a snowboard.
- C. give him advice on snowboarding equipment.

Tekst 2.

First there was heavy rain, then there was a storm and then came a hurricane – such was the power of our boys. The opponents had no chance. They were the stars from the beginning to the end of the match. It's not a secret that many fans didn't believe in the new coach but it's obvious now that his skills have had an amazing effect on the players. If they keep fighting like this for the rest of the season, the championship will be ours!

The text is about ...

- A. the promising results of a sports team.
- B. a match stopped because of terrible weather.
- C. a coach who helped a team win the championship.

Tekst 3.

I pull my helmet off and look up at the crowd. I notice Mom. She always supports me but she worries I'll get hurt. I wish my dad was here. He rarely comes to my football games. People think it's because he's busy, because he's Donovan Woods, the famous head coach of the Tennessee Titans. The truth is he doesn't want me to play. Why doesn't he want me to choose the same career? After all, he loves the fact that my brother plays for the University of Tennessee. So what's Dad's problem with me playing? He thinks there is no place in this sport for a girl.

Which sentence is TRUE? ...

- A. The girl's parents are both present at the match.
- B. The girl's father is against her playing football.
- C. The girl's brother trains the Tennessee Titans
