Name: ..... Class: ..... Date: .....

MINI TEST 29

Question 1. I _____ a smile and then turned and fled to my room.

A. forced B. compeled C. squeezed D. impelled

Question 2. When she came home after midnight, her father _____ the law: if she came home that late again, she would not be allowed to watch TV for a month.

A. laid to B. laid on C. laid down D. laid off

Question 3. The band have now _____ horns with their record company over the album.

A. bolted B. locked C. clasped D. latched

Question 4. The minister was sacked for _____ power for his personal gain.

A. exploiting B. misapplying C. misusing D. abusing

Question 5. He was _____ to prison for a crime that he didn't commit.

A. transported B. sent C. directed D. appointed

Question 6. Calls mounted for Chun to be punished for corruption and human _____ abuses.

A. dues B. prerogatives C. rights D. entitlements

Question 7. He is released after a two-year prison _____, a widowed, penniless old man.

A. sentence B. verdict C. decision D. punishment

Question 8. Vician points to the social _____ townships provide for the poor and elderly.

A. contracts B. science C. services D. network

Question 9. Kennedy handled the missile crisis as a political issue—resisting the temptation to make it a totally military stand-off that might have escalated into world war—and set a goal of nuclear arms _____.

A. command B. administer C. limit D. control

Question 10. No one _____ authority objected to the plan.

A. on B. in C. at D. over

Question 11. Who's in _____ here?

A. charge B. task C. assign D. entrust

Question 12. There are noticeable class _____ in family size

A. discrepancies B. diversities C. contrasts D. differences

Question 13. Viewed in this way, the truism that a crime _____ was the cause of legislative activism on penal reform becomes problematic.

A. swell B. surge C. wave D. billow

Pencil Me
Prepare to be different