

1. Complete the sentences with the correct prepositions.

- a) We're spending a lot more food than we used to.
- b) We can always borrow some money the bank.
- c) Don't waste your money such purchases.
- d) Banks are willing to lend large amounts of money people starting up businesses.
- e) I'm going to invest my savings this project.
- f) How can I cut down clothing costs?

2. Match words and phrases in bold to the correct meanings below.

MEANINGS:

- it means that something is good value for the amount of money paid
- a compromise
- to ask an amount of money for something
- an individual thing
- to spend more money than you should or more than you wanted to
- because you suddenly want to, although you haven't planned to
- to spend only as much money as you have
- a good, or lower than usual, price
- a cost

- trade-off
- on impulse
- overspend
- item
- deals
- keep myself on budget
- expense
- cost-effective
- charge

3. Fill in the gaps with words from the box.

DISCOUNTS COST-EFFECTIVE BUDGET
IMPULSE CUT EXPENSES

- Buying things on is something spenders often do.
- It's important to save money on everyday
- Look for ways to save on the things that are less important to you, to keep yourself on
- When you go shopping always look for but don't buy things which are not on your shopping list.
- The best way to save money is to write down how you spend your money in a month and down on some big expenses.
- Public transport is not really a method of transport if you have a family.