

Use of English

Throwing a House Party While Parents Are Away

Read the text below, choose the correct answer (A, B, C, D)

Throwing a house party while your parents are away — and with their (1) _____, of course! — sounds exciting, but there are a few things to (2) _____. First, you need to create a guest list to (3) _____ too many people showing up. Then, you should prepare some (4) _____, such as snacks and drinks. Make sure to keep the music at an appropriate level to avoid disturbing the neighbors.

If you don't want things to get out of (5) _____, you should also set some ground rules for the party. Make sure there are enough (6) _____ for everyone to be comfortable. You might want to prepare some games or activities to keep your guests entertained.

It's also a good idea to (7) _____ valuable items to avoid accidents. Keep an eye on the time so you can (8) _____ everyone to leave before it gets too late. Finally, remember to (9) _____ the house thoroughly and put things back in their original places. This way, your parents will return (10) _____ a tidy home!

- | | | | | |
|----------------|-----------------|-----------|-----------------|-----------|
| 1. _____ | 2. _____ | 3. _____ | 4. _____ | 5. _____ |
| A) allowance | A) keep in mind | A) beware | A) activities | A) line |
| B) prohibition | B) give up | B) stop | B) materials | B) touch |
| C) permission | C) make haste | C) avoid | C) refreshments | C) stock |
| D) disapproval | D) be sure | D) escape | D) decorations | D) space |
| 6. _____ | 7. _____ | 8. _____ | 9. _____ | 10. _____ |
| A) decorations | A) restore | A) review | A) clean | A) in |
| B) furniture | B) hide | B) remind | B) connect | B) with |
| C) tasks | C) display | C) make | C) hold | C) from |
| D) seats | D) replace | D) say | D) clear | D) to |