1 ▷ Listen to a young fashion designer talking about her work. Complete the text with the phrases you hear.

Well, I've been interested in fashion and design since I was a kid. I always ¹ _____ knew I wanted to work with clothes when I grew up. I used to love dressing up and was always getting my mum to adjust my clothes in some way ... you know, like sewing new buttons on, painting on new designs ² _____. So I guess I've always been ³ _____ creative! Nowadays I go to vintage clothing shops and ⁴ _____ to get inspiration for my new designs. There were some really great ideas around in those days. I just love the fashions and ⁵ _____ from the 50s and 60s.

My childhood wasn't an ordinary one. When I was just a baby and my sister was two years old, our father got a new job which meant he had to spend long periods abroad. Because she had two young children, my mother decided to go back and live with her parents. As a result, my sister and I were ¹_____ partly by my mother's parents, so that she could go out to work. My grandparents ²_____ to us and did the best they could for us. We had a great relationship, but we certainly weren't ³_____ them and we were ⁴_____ whenever we behaved badly. It was tough for my grandmother because as well as looking after us, she had to ⁵_____ for her own mother, who was elderly at the time. My grandmother has often told me that I ⁶_____ my mother, that I'm like her in so many ways, and that's comforting to know.

I was lucky in that I had a very good relationship with my sister. When I was growing up, I always ⁷ _____ her, admiring everything she did. And I ⁸ _____ to her to this very day. She feels the same and, in fact, she ⁹ _____ me before anyone else when she needs a second opinion on something or just wants to express her hopes and fears about things. It's a lovely bond to have and it really ¹⁰ _____ my nerves when I hear people complaining about their brothers and sisters. Enjoy the time you have together, I say!
