1. The Earth's crust is thicker under the oceans than on land.
2. The mantle is responsible for the movement of tectonic plates.
3. The inner core is a liquid layer of iron and nickel.
4. Pangaea was a supercontinent that existed millions of years ago.
5. Seafloor spreading occurs at mid-ocean ridges.
6. The Kola Superdeep Borehole reached the mantle.
7. Convection currents in the mantle are responsible for the movement of oceanic plates.

LIVEWORKSHEETS