WILL / BE GOING TO / PRESENT CONTINUOUS?

FUTURE SIMPLE will / won't I think we will go to Madrid.	PRESENT CONTINUOUS am/is/are + ING We are going to Madrid.	to be going to am/is/are + going to We are going to go to Madrid.
▪ a prediction ▪ decision is made just before we say it	▪ a definite arrangement (100%)	▪ a personal intention ▪ observation-conclusion

Put the verbs in the correct form.

a) Look at the sky! It _____ (rain).

b) Marry thinks that Mark _____ (be) a famous actor soon.

c) Next week Frank and Teresa _____ (fly) to New York. They have already bought tickets.

d) A: "Someone is knocking on the door". B: "I _____ (open).

e) Gina _____ (be) a doctor when she grows up.

f) Harry, _____ (help) me, please?

g) We _____ (watch) a film tomorrow with Billy. He _____ (come) to my house.

h) Can you see this woman? She _____ (have) a baby.

i) I am pretty sure our teacher _____ (not/give) us any homework.

j) In five days his cousins _____ (open) their new restaurant.

k) What _____ (you/do) at the weekend?

l) I am so excited because next month we _____ (move) to a new flat.

LIVEWORKSHEETS