

A Complete the conversations using the perfect form of the verbs.

1 A: ¹_____ you ever _____ (introduce) to someone, but then had a feeling that you ²_____ (meet) them already?

B: Yes! That ³_____ (happen) to me quite a few times. Who are you talking about?

A: Well, last week I started that painting class I was telling you about, and there was a woman next to me who I must ⁴_____ (speak) to before. I'm sure I ⁵_____ already _____ (hear) the stories she told me.

B: That's weird. Couldn't you just ⁶_____ (ask) her if she knew you?

A: Well, time flew by, leaving me no time to ask. Plus, I didn't want to come across as strange!

B: True. She could ⁷_____ just _____ (be) one of those familiar faces with a familiar story.

2 A: So where ¹_____ you _____ (live)? And why do you want to flat share with us?

B: Well, ²_____ (live) at home for most of my life, I'm now ready to move out and start renting. Unfortunately, it's way too expensive to rent on my own, plus I'd really like to share with other working professionals like yourselves.

A: That's great. And what do you do?

B: Well, ³_____ (graduate) from university last year, I started working in recruitment. I could ⁴_____ (progress) in that role, but I decided it wasn't for me.

A: So what ⁵_____ you _____ (do) since you left that job?

B: Well, I ⁶_____ (help) out and doing odd jobs for people around the neighbourhood.

A: You should ⁷_____ (start) the conversation with that, and we would ⁸_____ (say) yes to you moving in straight away! Sounds like you'll be handy to have around the house fixing things ...!