

MODAL VERBS

1. Complete the sentences with can, could or will be able to in the correct form (affirmative, negative or interrogative)

- a. I _____ play the guitar when I was a child, but now I don't remember
- b. She _____ speak French fluently after completing her language course next year.
- c. _____ you come to the meeting?
- d. They _____ go to the concert last week because she was sick.
- e. We _____ solve this problem if we work together.
- f. In the future, people _____ travel to Mars.
- g. I'm sorry, but I _____ help you with that task today; I'm too busy.
- h. We _____ finish the project by next month if we receive more help.

2. Complete the sentences with should or ought to in the correct form (affirmative, negative or interrogative)

- a. You _____ visit your grandparents more often; they miss you.
- b. _____ we bring anything to the party, or is everything already set?
- c. He _____ eat so much junk food; it's affecting his health.
- d. I think you _____ call her and apologize for what happened.
- e. They _____ be late for the interview; it's very important for their career.

3. Complete the sentences with have to or must in the correct form (present or past)

- a. I _____ finish my homework before I go out tonight.
- b. She _____ leave early yesterday because she had an appointment.
- c. We _____ be at the airport by 6 a.m. tomorrow.
- d. They _____ study hard last week for their exams.
- e. He _____ call his parents; they were waiting for his update.

4. Complete the sentences with don't have to or mustn't in the correct form (present or past)

- a. You _____ touch the paintings in the museum; it's against the rules.
- b. We _____ wake up early tomorrow because it's a holiday.
- c. They _____ bring any food to the picnic; we have plenty.
- d. You _____ park here; it's a restricted area.

5. Complete the sentences with need to in the correct form (affirmative, negative or interrogative)

- a. I _____ finish this report by tonight; it's due tomorrow.
- b. _____ you _____ call him yesterday, or did it get resolved?
- c. She _____ bring her own lunch today because we're going to eat out.
- d. We _____ go to the meeting last week because it was canceled.
- e. He _____ not worry about the test; he's well prepared.

6. Complete the sentences with allow to or be allowed to in the correct form (affirmative, negative or interrogative)

- a. Students _____ use their phones during the exam; it's strictly prohibited.
- b. The school _____ students _____ use the library after school hours for studying.
- c. My parents didn't _____ me _____ go to the concert last night.
- d. _____ I _____ park my car here, or is it reserved for residents only?

7. Choose the correct option

- a. You have to / mustn't have a passport to travel abroad
- b. People mustn't / need to travel on public transport without a ticket
- c. We didn't have to / needed to get up early, because there was no school
- d. You don't have to / must finish your homework. The teacher will check it.
- e. You mustn't / need to wear trainers for PE class

8. Complete the following sentences with the most appropriate modal verb (can, could, must, should, have to, ought to, be able to) in its correct form.

- a. When I was younger, I _____ swim very fast, but now I'm slower.
- b. You _____ eat so much sugar; it's not good for your health.
- c. _____ you help me with this task, please?
- d. I _____ finish my homework.
- e. She _____ come to the party tomorrow because she has an appointment.
- f. They _____ speak three languages fluently.
- g. I _____ go to the doctor for my annual check-up.
- h. You _____ eat at the library.