Hello daughter, now that I am in Spain, I will tell you how I am spending my days without first telling you that I have missed you very much. Every day I wake up to do morning exercises, then I get ready to go to work, during work I read a book, while I do my work, in my free time I usually watch some video on youtube and then, when I finish my day I go out of work to a nearby restaurant to have dinner.

See you soon, kisses.
