

1 Remember the story At the restaurant. Write t (true) or f (false).

- 1 They read the map before lunch. ☐
- 2 The map has pictures they have to find. ☐
- 3 The red lions aren't in the zoo. ☐
- 4 Grandpa loses the map. ☐
- 5 Lucy has the map. ☐
- 6 The waiter wanted the map. ☐

☒ f

2 Complete the waiter's diary entry.

angry in the boy's pocket some bread children ~~old man~~
had soup a map red lions at the zoo a lion was a menu

Today there was an (1) old man in the restaurant. He was with two (2) children. They (3) sat for lunch. When I took the soup, I saw (4) a map on the table. I wanted to know about it, so I took (5) the map to their table. One child said the next picture on the map was (6) in the boy's pocket, but the other one said that you don't find (7) red lions at the zoo. I took the map, but when I looked at it in the kitchen, I saw that it (8) was a menu. I think the old man took the map and put the menu (9) in the boy's pocket. I was very (10) angry!

3 Read the story again and think. Draw 😊 or ☹️.

We should spend time with our family.

We should only spend time with our friends.

1  006 Listen and write the missing words. Then say with a friend.

Jen: Mr Price, this is for your new house.

Mr Price: _____
_____ plant!
Thank you! That's very kind.

Dawn: Did you see those two men in the car?

Dan: Yes, what about them?

Dawn: _____
_____ them.

Dan: What do you mean?

Dawn: One had a T-shirt and shorts, and the other had a big winter coat and boots!

2 Match to make sentences. Then circle the silent consonants.

1 The knight's

2 Please write

3 The scientist

4 The rhinos live

5 That's the wrong

6 At school you must

a knows about volcanoes.

b answer.

c got a sword.

d listen to the teacher.

e a rhyme in your notebooks.

f on an island.

3  007 Listen, say and check your answers.