

Indefinite Pronouns (every/some/any/no)

Name: _____

Test: 1

Result: ___/17 Date: ___/___/20___

1. I nodded my head, but said no thing.
2. Therefore we ought to prize this grace above all else, and do every thing in our power to preserve it.
3. She wanted to say some thing to comfort.
4. When _____ thing was ready, and the water in the pot was getting hot, he popped him in, and waited till he thought the salmon was nearly boiled.
5. Yet _____ thing was ready for the cameras.
6. The circumstance was _____ thing of a shock to him.
7. But that has _____ thing to do with it.
8. There's _____ thing else for it.
9. She waited, but he said _____ thing.
10. The name doesn't mean _____ thing.
11. There was _____ thing else for them to do.
12. They seem to be looking for _____ thing.
13. He had never seen _____ thing like it before.
14. Strangely enough, as it would seem, except for this buoyant determination to make the best of _____ thing, they hardly appear to recognize the difference of the climate from that which they had left.
15. He laughed, but I said _____ thing.
16. He glanced about as if in search of _____ thing.
17. Heaven will do _____ thing of the kind.
18. Now, let's talk of _____ thing else.

19. Did you ever see _____ thing like it?

20. Suddenly, however, the sound of war was heard again, Napoleon had broken forth from Elba, and _____ thing was in confusion.