It was an accident!

Indefinite Pronouns

PERSONS	PLACE	THINGS	EXAMPLES
Everyone Everybody	Everywhere	Everything	✓ Everyone must eat, drink and breathe. ✓ One can start a business anywhere. ✓ I do not like everything.
Anyone Anybody	Anywhere	Anything	✓ Anybody can improve their English. ✓ Anyone can do it. ✓ Anyone can do their business anywhere.
Someone Somebody	Somewhere	Something	✓ Someone is singing my favorite song. ✓ Somebody loves me. ✓ Somewhere, a lark is singing.
No-one Nobody	Nowhere	Nothing	✓ Nobody has to know what you did on your lunch break. ✓ Nothing is right or wrong. ✓ Anywhere is nowhere until you get there.

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Indefinite pronouns

Complete the conversation with indefinite pronouns. Listen to check your answers and then practice with a partner.

A	I'm planning Mark's birthday party. Do you know [1]_____ who can cook?
B	Yeah, I know [2]_____ who's a great cook. Actually, you know him, too. It's Thomas.
A	Really? I didn't know he could cook.
B	Yeah, he can cook just about [3]_____! I think I have his number in my phone. I'll need to tell him how much food to make. Do you know who else is coming to the party?
A	No, [4]_____ has replied yet. I guess [5]_____ is busy studying for finals this week!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Indefinite pronouns

Complete the sentences with your own ideas. Then share them with the class.

1 I damaged …….. by accident, but nobody ……...

2 I've looked everywhere for ……., but ……...

3 Once, I spilled …….. at my friend's house. Everybody was ……..

4 I know someone who can ……..

5 Last week, I felt bad about …….. because no one ……..

6 I haven't met anyone who ……., but I'd like to.

I damaged the car by accident, but nobody saw me do it.

I know someone who can speak four languages!

LIVEWORKSHEETS