

Frank Family and World War II Timeline

1. Why did Otto Frank move his family from Germany to the Netherlands?

- a. To join a larger Jewish community
- b. To escape from the Nazis' rise to power
- c. To find better job opportunities
- d. To reunite with relatives

2. What event prompted the Frank family to go into hiding?

- a. The beginning of World War II
- b. The invasion of the Netherlands by the Nazis
- c. An order for Margot Frank to report to a labor camp
- d. The publication of Anne Frank's diary

3. Who joined the Frank family in hiding?

- a. Another family and a dentist
- b. Otto Frank's business associates
- c. A group of soldiers
- d. Friends from their neighborhood

4. What happened to the Frank family after they were discovered in hiding?

- a. They were sent to a safe house
- b. They were released after questioning
- c. They were sent to concentration camps
- d. They escaped to another country

5. What significant event took place after World War II ended?

- a. Anne Frank's diary was published
- b. The Netherlands gained independence
- c. Otto Frank moved back to Germany
- d. Adolf Hitler was captured