I live in the north of Mexico. I eat a breakfast called salchicha con huevo. This is sausage with scrambled eggs. We eat it with tortillas. It's very good. You should try it.

In Brazil we call breakfast café-da-manhã. There are lots of different foods you can have. I have bread and cheese and then a piece of special cake. We also eat a lot of fruit. I like mango and watermelon.

Mustafa from Turkey

The breakfast table in our house is full of food. There is bread, white cheese, yellow cheese, tomatoes, olives, honey, salami (a kind of sausage) and eggs. We all drink black tea. Breakfast is my favourite meal.
