Tommy was a curious kid who loved exploring the woods near his house. One day, his older brother, Jack, told him a story about a hidden treasure in the forest. "If you find the old tree with the red mark, you'll find a map," Jack said, with a glint in his eye. Excited,

Tommy decided to set off on an adventure the next day.

When school was over, Tommy packed his backpack with snacks and a flashlight. "If I find the map, I will become a real treasure hunter," he thought. As he walked through the woods, he tried to remember Jack's directions. The sun was setting, and the forest was turning mysterious and quiet.

Suddenly, Tommy spotted an old, wise-looking tree with a faint red mark. His heart raced. "If this mark is real, the map must be here," he whispered. Carefully, he checked around the tree
