

TOPIC VOCABULARY (UNIT 36 - DESTINATION B1)

1. The weather _____ predicts that it will rain tomorrow.

- A) climate
- B) forecast
- C) wild

2. It's important to _____ plastic bottles so they can be reused.

- A) recycle
- B) litter
- C) preserve

3. The Amazon rainforest is home to many different _____ of plants and animals.

- A) species
- B) environments
- C) origins

4. Some animals are classified as _____ because their numbers are very low.

- A) wild
- B) endangered species
- C) reptiles

5. Lightning and _____ are common during summer storms.

- A) shower
- B) thunder
- C) freezing

6. The Earth is the only known _____ that supports life.

- A) planet
- B) insect
- C) satellite

7. Many _____ are important for pollinating plants.

- A) wild animals
- B) insects
- C) species

8. During the storm, we saw _____ and heard the loud _____ that followed.

- A) lightning / thunder
- B) shower / wild
- C) thunder / lightning

9. The phenomenon of _____ occurs when the temperature drops rapidly, causing water to turn into ice.

- A) freezing
- B) mild
- C) climate

10. To ensure our planet's health, we must take steps to protect the _____ and reduce pollution.

- A) countryside
- B) extinction
- C) environment

11. Many animals are at risk of _____ due to habitat loss and climate change.

- A) existence
- B) extinction
- C) preservation

12. It is important to _____ our natural resources for future generations.

- A) locate
- B) preserve
- C) rescue

13. Some species, like the Komodo dragon, are classified as _____ because they are cold-blooded.

- A) reptiles
- B) insects
- C) wild animals

14. To help keep the environment clean, we should not _____ in public places.

- A) litter

B) shower

C) exist

15. Many experts believe that climate change poses a _____ threat to many species on our planet.

A) mild

B) global

C) freezing