

Grammar: Indefinite pronouns.

Answer with no one or anyone in the following sentences.

1. _____ has ever questioned the importance of education.
2. I didn't see _____ in the classroom.
3. I don't think that _____ would pass up the opportunity of a free vacation.
4. _____ would want to miss the chance to attend this concert.
5. Is there _____ who hasn't experienced this before?
6. _____ has the right to dictate how others should live their lives.
7. I cannot believe that _____ would argue against the benefits of exercise.
8. Can _____ deny the beauty of a sunset over the ocean?
9. _____ could predict the outcome of such a situation.
10. _____ is immune to the influence of peer pressure.

Grammar: Phrasal verbs

Complete the following sentences using the phrasal verbs pick up, turn on, turn off, fill up, and drop off.

1. I left the room and realized I forgot to _____ the lights.
2. Before you leave, make sure to _____ the gas tank; we have a long drive ahead.
3. As you enter the building, please remember to _____ your phones during the conference.
4. The package is ready; can you please _____ it at the post office on your way home?
5. After the event, everyone helped to _____ the chairs and clean up the venue.