Conditional Sentences

These sentences are based on the lyrics of It will rain.
Complete them with the correct conditional form (zero-first-second-third) .
Remember that we can also use imagine/suppose (questions); provided/as long as and assuming instead of if in conditional sentences .

1 If she'd left him, he.....(take) a whole lot of medication.
2 He thinks that it .....(not stop) raining if she leaves him.
3 If religion .....(can) save him he'd kneel on the floor and be thankful.
4 If somebody you love suddenly .....(leave) you, you often suffer a lot.
5 There's no morphine that ..... (give) you relief if your heart is broken.
6 Even if he made a lot of sacrifices for her, he .....not keep (may) her by his side.
7 If someone you trust ..... (walk) away , there are only tears in your eyes.
8 Suppose she decides to go away even though he writes her a song. ..... (he – really- feel) so depressed?
9 If he .....(lose) her, for him there'll be no sunlight any more.
10 Assuming his girlfriend had left him, her friend Mary ..... certainly ..... (help) him forget all about her.
11 If you .....(be) in her mother's shoes, ... (you – be) convinced that he is a good person?
12 If her father .....(not think) he was just a troublesome boy, ...(he- allow) his daughter to go on dating him?
13 If the girl .....(keep) in her mind all the sacrifices he's been making to keep her beside him, she .....(not leave) him.
14 There .....(not be) any clear skies for him, if she .....(go) away with someone else.
15 She .....(stay) with him if he .....(can) change her parents' minds, but that will never happen.
16 The boy .....(feel) more self-assured if her father could look him in the eyes.
17 He .....(may) stop her from going away if he convinced her parents that he ..... (can) change.
18 Provided that her parents .....(not be) afraid of something they find difficult to understand, that boy and his girl will soon get married.
19 Her parents .....(change) their minds about him as long as he becomes a hard-working man.
20 If they could understand his way of being, they ..... (be) afraid.

21 If they break up, both of them .....(cry) their eyes out.
22 If he .....(accept) that job he was offered in the big city last year, he wouldn't have had to deal with so much difficulty .
23 If he were her mother's favourite, he .....(not have to) be so unhappy.
24 If she .....(already – say) goodbye, he wouldn't have suffered so much.
25 If she .....(listen) her mother's advice, she wouldn't have had so many problems.

LIVEWORKSHEETS