People make plans to ...

Is it an arrangement or an intention?

1. She is having dinner with some friends. They arranged it long time ago.
2. I think I am going to bring mom and dad here
3. I am going to text Angie and Mark and tell them to come and meet us.
4. We are going to go for a walk and show you the city.
5. We are meeting friends and 3 O'clock. I think we are going for coffee somewhere.
6. We are going to the market to look around
7. We are going to make some food shopping because Dunkin is making curry. They are going to open a restaurant one day.
8. We are going to the theater. We are seeing a comedy show.

Arrangements – you have probably booked a ticket or agreed on a time with other people. You usually mention a time, date or place.

Intentions – you have already decided to do something and want to tell someone about it. You don't need to mention a time, date or place.
