

- What is the primary focus of "safety" in a physical education setting?
 - A) Managing student behavior
 - B) Preventing accidents
 - C) Enhancing athletic performance
 - D) Improving lesson planning
- Liability in physical education implies a teacher or coach has a duty to whom?
 - A) The school administration
 - B) A particular group, like students or athletes
 - C) The parents
 - D) The local community
- Which of the following is NOT one of the four elements required to establish negligence?
 - A) Duty
 - B) Breach of duty
 - C) Injury
 - D) Supervision
- What type of negligence involves failing to perform a required duty?
 - A) Malfeasance
 - B) Misfeasance
 - C) Nonfeasance
 - D) Contributory negligence
- Why is "foreseeability" an important concept in risk management?
 - A) It helps teachers plan more efficient lessons
 - B) It allows coaches to anticipate potential dangers and prevent them
 - C) It encourages students to take responsibility for their actions
 - D) It improves communication with parents and guardians
- According to Brusseau et al. (2021), safety guidelines in physical education should include which of the following?
 - A) Regular assessment of student skills
 - B) Discussion of safety rules specific to each activity
 - C) Increased competitiveness
 - D) Limiting student access to equipment
- What is the main purpose of a Safety Committee in a physical education setting?
 - A) To establish policies and analyze serious accidents

- B) To lead fitness training sessions
 - C) To develop coaching skills in teachers
 - D) To supervise sports events
- Which of the following best describes an Emergency Care Plan?
 - A) A list of rules for sports safety
 - B) A document outlining the steps following an accident
 - C) A plan for evaluating student performance
 - D) A procedure for planning lessons
- In risk assessment, what two factors are most commonly considered?
 - A) Likelihood and severity
 - B) Duration and timing
 - C) Complexity and cost
 - D) Performance and participation
- What is an effective method for communicating safety concerns to parents and guardians?
 - A) Scheduling weekly student evaluations
 - B) Publishing a newsletter
 - C) Giving students extra assignments
 - D) Organizing daily meetings with parents
- For children under 10, which of the following risks is generally rated as high during a football session?
 - A) Lightly bruised leg
 - B) Sprained ankle
 - C) Concussion
 - D) Muscle cramp